

Proof of Income

This can also include a proof of receiving benefits

Bring in at least one

- Recent (last 30 days) paycheck stubs or copies of paychecks (at least one month (30 days))
- Recent Income Tax Return
- Social Security or SSI
- Unemployment benefit checks
- Proof of Child Support or Alimony (Court Letter or statement from parent. If self-reported, you may be asked to provide additional proof.)
- Signed statement by employer
- Signed statement of no income (with explanation)
- Business Account Statements (if you are self-employed)

Proof of Current Benefits Enrollment Examples

This also counts as proof of income

Includes an app snapshot of the monthly benefit received

Bring in all that apply

- App snapshot of the monthly benefit amount received (also counts as proof of income)
- Notice of Program Eligibility

Proof of Identity Examples

Includes a driver's license or picture ID

Bring in one

- Photo Identification (Driver's License or Passport)
- Work/School ID Card
- Social Security Card
- Voter Registration
- Woman's Birth Certificate
- Tribal ID Card
- Military ID
- Hospital ID Bracelet
- Medical Records
- State issued ID

Proof of Identity Examples (Child/Infant)

Includes the hospital ID bracelet, hospital newborn footprints, or hospital discharge papers

Bring in all that apply (one per family member, i.e. record for each child or infant needing WIC resources)

- Crib sheet with footprints
- Hospital ID Bracelet

- Child's Birth Certificate
- Immunization Records
- Medical Records
- Letter of proof of guardianship

Proof of Address Examples

Includes a current utility bill or a statement from the current landlord

Bring in at least one (has to be recent within 30 days of submitting this as proof)

- Current Utility Bill (phone, gas, water, etc.)
- Rent or mortgage receipt/lease agreement
- Voter Registration with current address
- Written statement from reliable third party

Proof of Pregnancy Examples

Includes a letter from a healthcare facility confirming the pregnancy

Bring in at least one

- Positive pregnancy test statement from health care facility
- Sonogram
- Letter from physician confirming your pregnancy